Copenhagen, July 27, N. S.

HIS Danish Majesty comes to Town this Day to review the Regiment of Horse Guards; after which his Majesty will return immediately to Kirschholm. To-morrow the Court goes into Mourning, which is to last three Months, for the Prince of Culmbach. Count Frize having had the Misfortune to lose his Lady, who accompanied him as far as Frankfurt, and died there lately after a few Days Illness, has desired and obtained his Dismissal; and Major General Amthor is appointed to succeed him in the Command of the Danish Cavalry upon the Rhine.

Hague, Aug. 3, N. S. According to the last Advices from the Rhine, the French have extended themselves towards Worms and towards Fort Louis, either for the better subsisting of their Troops, or upon some other Design; Prince Eugene was still at Bruchsal. By Letters from Italy we learn, that Field-Marshal Count Konigsegg was arrived at Rovere, had taken upon him the Command of the Imperial Forces, and was making ready for Action.

Whitehall, July 16, 1734.

Whereas Jeremiah Bruford, of Taunton St. James, in the County of Somerset, received on the 14th of March last, a Letter signed Thomas Resolved, John Resolved, and George Resolved, threatening to burn his Corn and Hay, and to knock out his Brains, if he went to Maiden Brooke, an Estate he had lately taken: And whereas on the 16th of March aforesaid, the said Jeremiah Bruford received another Letter to the same Effect; as also one on the 27th, threatening to treat him in the Manner above-mentioned, unless he put Twenty Guineas in a Place described in the said Letter: And whereas on Sunday the 17th of the said Month, the said Jeremiah Bruford was assaulted near his Dwelling-house by a Person unknown, who gave him a violent Blow on his Arm; and on the Wednesday following was again attacked by Three Persons disguised, who knocked him down, and robbed him of Five Guineas and Fourteen Shillings; and was also assaulted on the 8th of April last, by Three Persons in Womens Apparel, but supposed to be Men, with their Faces blacked, who beat him till they thought he was dead, then robbed him of Fifteen Guineas and Two Shillings; since which the said Jeremiah Bruford has had a Stack of Hay set on Fire, and an Ox wounded: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such heinous Crimes, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to any Person who shall make such Discovery, as aforesaid, the said Jeremiah Bruford does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas.

Jer. Bruford.

Admiralty Office, July 27, 1734.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, and also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq, at this Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And there being Ground to hope, that the Governors of the said Charity may be impowered to distribute some Relief to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, provided their Circumstances come within the Rules thereof; these are to give Notice to all such Widows to repair or send to the above-named Places; that they may be provided with the proper Certificates accordingly. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they shall meet at this Office on Tuesday the Tenth of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive and adjust the Claims of all such Widows as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

Navy-Office, July 26, 1734.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers from the First of January 1733, to the 30th of June 1734, according to his late Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad-street, at Nine a-Clock in the Morning, the following Days, viz. on Tuesday the 13th of the next Month for the Captains, Wednesday the 14th for the Lieutenants, and Thursday the 15th for the Masters and Surgeons, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Victualling-Office, July 24, 1734.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Friday the 16th Day of August next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals in Writing, sealed up, at their Office on Tower-Hill, from all such Persons as are willing to
